DAYE-PITTSOR DUO

Two Clever Artists With the Emery Comedy Company.

More talented performers are seldom seen than Dainty Little Phyllis Daye and Mr. Earnest D. Pittsor, two members of the Emery Musical Comedy company, both play principal parts in all the six comedies, both do a single specialty each night, and the two a double specialty. An entire change of work each night. As soon as they appear.

ette and comedian then prove very popular and lead the Ideal Beauty chorus in many of the musical numbers.

The Emery company and its members opens a week's engagement at Electric park, starting Sunday, May 31, in the three-act musical comedy, "Our Widow," and give an entire change of program each night during their stay.

Relief From Rheumatic Pains.
"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. William Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away. I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by C. R. Renfro.

To Sue Railroad for Damages.
Persons who own property north of the city which is flooded with water caught by the El Reno and Western grade which backs the flood water on to their places, ruining their crops, are threatening to sue the railroad for damages.

Watson a Loser.
Corporation Commissioner A. P. Watson, better known as "Potter," Watson on account of the large crop of potatoes he raises in the vicinity of Shawnee, reports that he had an acre of potatoes, two acres of garden truck and some feed planted on the Hagan farm north of the city, which is now under a foot of water backed up by the El Reno dam from the surplus water of Sunday, totally destroyed.

Good Words for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

People everywhere take pleasure in testifying to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. Edward Phillips, of Barclay, Md., writes: "I wish to tell you that I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My little girl, Catherine, who is two years old, has been taking this remedy whenever she has had a cold since she was two months old. About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by C. R. Renfro.

Charles B. A. Ray, of the house of representatives, returned to his home in Oklahoma City last evening. He has been in two legislatures prior to this one.
